A silent film, thought lost after World War II. A hardboiled Japanese gangster film. A rare glimpse of a world now completely vanished.

Pickford Film Center presents Dragnet Girl (1933), a steamy, smoky, silent romance with a new original score performed live in the theatre by Nashville trio Coupler that has wowed audiences in New York, Philly, Boston, Dallas, and D.C. and is now on a West Coast tour.

Dear Bellingham,

There is no denying the dark months are upon us. We might as well get down to good adventure - movie watching adventures. For those of you who are into journeys that challenge your consciousness, Pickford Film Center offers many upcoming opportunities. Keep reading this calendar to make your travel plans.

First, a reminder from the flight attendants for your film quest: chattering to your neighbor during a film is highly discouraged and checking your phone during the movie is absolutely forbidden. Help us keep a baseline for human film experience for your neighbors. Come to a film tonight and don’t worry, you’re not going to have trouble following dialogues. All are welcome.

As 2019 closes out we are once again asking our membership and friends to support Pickford Film Center. These programs, income, and tens of thousands of tickets and screens change the course of history. Tickets, PG-12, USA
